ABOUT CONFERENCE

GRYPICON-2022 is the International conference at GRYIP which will create an International forum for academicians, practitioners, students, researchers and industrial professionals to discuss issues related to Pharmacy and Healthcare. The conference is organized with a key intention to focus on professional development in pharmacy profession concerning about education, to prevent misappropriation of health-related traditional knowledge, essential leadership skills and attributes to advance practice.

The pharmaceutical sector today is witnessing a transition that impacts the approach towards healthcare. There is shift to patient-centric models in healthcare along with increase in number of complex untreatable diseases and increment in drug-resistance and drug-ineffectiveness situations. This growing realization has generated the need of improving flow of innovative medicines which have ultimately prompted research units to break the status quo and look for sources of appropriate knowledge and expertise outside their own organizations.

This conference will help to reform health education, drug production cost, intellectual / regulatory system, basic science and innovation in pharmaceutical sector and in overall healthcare management.
